Wilson Smyrna Plan Adopted by Allies

Council Decides Not to Allocate Immediately the Wedge to Greece

PARIS, April 22.—The Allied Supreme Council, this morning continued its elaboration of the treaty with Turkey, which, it is believed, will be finished today, according to the San Remo correspondence of the Havas Agency. Having in mind the reservations formulated by President Wilson in his note of last month, the correspondent says the council decided not to allocate immediately and definitely the Smyrna wedge to Greece.

With regard to the protection of minorities, the correspondent continues, the Ottoman government will be compelled to pledge itself to respect the different beliefs. Every act contrary to neutrality in this respect will be considered by the co-contracting powers as a breach of the treaty and may lead to military repression. Representatives of the league of nations will be installed in Constantinople to receive the complaints of the minorities if there are any.

German Appeal Not Surprising

The receipt of the German note asking permission for the maintenance of an army of 200,000 minimum strength has produced a lively impression on members of the council. The British and British circles, however, it did not seem to cause surprise and even appeared to be favorably regarded. The German appeal, in fact, accords with the attitude already expressed by the chief of the Italian government. The opinion expressed in French circles is that if, in view of the danger of Bolshevism, this demand is granted, France ought to receive effective guarantees against any attempt at revenge on the part of Germany.

Control of the Dardanelles

SAN REMO, April 22 (By The Associated Press).—Plans for the control of the Dardanelles were formulated by the Supreme Council at today's session. The control will be exercised by two international commissions. One of these, an administrative body, will regulate the traffic, fix the dues for the use of the strait and supervise affairs generally, much the same as the Suez Canal Commission for the Suez waterway. The other body will be a military commission having at its disposition forces which will be located in part on the Italian Peninsula and in part on the other side of the Straits. The passage of the Straits will be declared to be forever free to the world's shipping, and no military operations will be permitted in the Straits. It does not appear that the United States will be represented on the commissions. The Armenian frontiers were again discussed, but no definite decision was reached. The tribute that Egypt has paid since 1846 to the Turkish Empire, which was hypothecated by the Turks as security for loans, will continue to be paid by Egypt to the bondholders.
